

Best Dental Practice in Valley Fourth Year in a Row

Dr. Angela Beth Armstead's thanks all her valued patients for voting her dental practice a "Best in the Valley" award by Charleston Gazette-Mail for the fourth year in a row. Her office received the award from 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2010. These awards are voted on by local residents in a variety of community services categories.

Dr. Angela Beth Armstead, DDS, and her staff consider every patient to be part of the family. Her practice offers the highest quality in gentle and effective care, and Dr. Armstead has established herself as one of the most professional and friendly dentists in the area. Her strong connection to the Kanawha Valley is personified in her passion and commitment to general dentistry.

Her practice is different from others, as her office understands the importance of patient service. Her knowledgeable staff is here to serve her patients through the use of safe and proven procedures, as well as the latest in cutting-edge dental technology – all while remembering to keep them informed and comfortable – are as much a part of the patient's examination and treatment as the staff do their best to customize their methods to the patient's needs, wants and concerns.

Dr. Angela Beth Armstead, DDS welcomes questions and comments, and encourage patients to contact her office by phone at or e-mail Dr. Armstead at Angela.Armstead.DDS@gmail.com.

Phone: (304) 343-2151 • FAX: (304) 343-2153